However, pursuant to the B2B Agreement, You agree to comply with all applicable laws, including those which may require You to provide notice to or gain consent from Your B2B Representatives and End Users prior to giving Us permission to Process that Personal Information as a Controller. Specifically, You and Your legal advisors should consider whether You need to list Us in Your privacy policy and notify Your End Users of Our privacy practices by linking to this Privacy Policy.

When You are a B2B Representative or an End User and We act as a Controller with respect to Your Personal Information, this Privacy Policy describes Our privacy practices, including the Personal Information We collect from You, how We use it, how We share it, Your rights and choices, and how You can contact Us about Our privacy practices.
